June was a very busy month with the Michigan State Rally, The Rally in Louisville, KY. , working on the Jayco International Rally -- throw in 4 family birthdays, one a surprise 50th birthday party for our daughter, and a couple anniversaries other than that we didn't have much to do.

I took Phyllis for her birthday dinner on June 3rd and our daughter (Denise) joined us, we had to watch what we said as it was Denises surprise 50th birthday party coming up on flag day June 14th -- the next day we headed for the office (RCMI) to work on the International Rally and get some things around for the Michigan State Rally coming up June 15th - 17th -- arrived home on the 12th stayed over night -- then it was on to St. Louis, MI. for the State Rally it was a short stay as on the afternoon the 14th (flag day) we headed for Battle Creek, MI. for the surprise birthday party for our Daughter -- before we left for the party I called her and wished her a Happy Birthday -- told her we were in St. Louis for the State Rally -- we also sent her card in the mail which she got the day before -- we had her set up big time -- my sister (Darlene) joined us for the trip to Battle Creek for the party, the party went well and she was surprised!!

We got back to the State Rally about mid-night -- camp fires were all out and everybody was in bed. By Friday afternoon all the units had arrived (35 units) and started the Rally -- had hot dogs with all the fix ins Friday evening. Saturday had games for everybody to enjoy -- craft sale -- Saturday evening we had a nice catered meal after the meal their was entertainment followed by door prizes and ICE CREAM a nice ending to a very good day. That takes us to the first of July and a very calm Independence Day, I'll see my doctor on the 6th at 8:30am then it will be onto the office to finalizes plans for the Jayco International Rally being held at Mackinaw City, MI. Tidbits Important International Rally News!!!!!!!

This year if you want to come in early (July 13th - 14th - 15th YOU MUST CALL Mackinaw Mill Creek campground (231-436-5584) and make your our reservations -- the campground wants you to call 3 weeks before you want to come in -- tell them that you are with the JAYCO TRAVEL CLUB and they will put you in the area that we will be using for the Rally. If you have several units that want to park together YOU must make the reservations at the same time and I think you will have to come in the same day to be parked together.

Paradise stream was the campground, June 16-18th was the date, and the weather for the weekend was just great. It's a Father's Day weekend here at Paradise stream and it's a pig roast weekend where fathers get to eat free and everyone else must pay. Attending this month campout were Perry & Alice Byers, Colin & Doris Crouse, Ken & Janet Engelman & mother Kathy, Jon & Shirley Holtzer and their friends Jim & Sally Robenseifner, Bob & Velma Keefer, Jack Rudy & Martha Shover, Harland & JoCarol Smeigh.

After arriving at Paradise stream campground and getting everything all set up, we all got together and went over to the Blaine Hotel for dinner. Later on we spent some time at Jack and Martha's RV just catching up on some lost time. Then we all gathered round a campfire at Bob and Velma Keepers site.

After setting around the campfire for a while we noticed some people doing some tent camping, where it looked like they were having some trouble setting up a tent. A few of us walked down to see if we could be of assistance, after looking the situation over we noticed a few of the pieces were put together incorrectly, after fixing the problem the rest of the set up went smoothly. As the night went on around the campfire the weather got cooler and people started to retire to their ousn RVs, I was a little confused as people were talking about going home to make dessert and I thought it seemed a little late to be making dessert, but to each their own. Oh by the way did I mention how well Mr. Holtzer is at spelling (sure taught me a thing or two) ha ha ha.

The June meeting of the Susquehanna Jays was opened by Bob Keefer with a pledge to the American flag. The secretaries report and the treasurers report were both approved as read. There was some discussion regarding coming back to Paradise stream in 2013, it was decided to go to Dogwood Acres in June of 2013 instead of Paradise Stream. Next month in July we will be going to J&D campground however next year instead of J&D campground in July we will be going to Hickory Run Campground. A 50-50 drawing was held and the winners were Shirley Holtzer and Sally Robenseifner. A motion to adjourn by Doris Crouse and Jon Holtzer.

Recipes

Red, White, and Blueberry Cheesecake Pie

Ingredients

- 8 sheets phyllo dough
- 1/4 cup butter, melted
- 2 (8 ounce) packages cream cheese
- 1/2 cup white sugar
- 1 teaspoon vanilla extract
- 2 eggs
- 2 cups fresh blueberries
- 1/2 cup strawberry jelly
- 1 cup heavy cream, whipped (optional)

Directions

1. Preheat oven to 425 degrees F (220 degrees C).
2. On a flat surface, place one sheet of phyllo dough. Brush it with melted butter, and cover with another piece of phyllo. Repeat until all 8 sheets are used. Using kitchen scissors, cut layered phyllo into a 12- to 13-inch circle. Carefully press circle into a greased 9-inch pie plate; gently fan edges. Bake in preheated oven until edges are just golden, 6 to 8 minutes; cool slightly on a wire rack. Reduce oven temperature to 350 degrees F (175 degrees C).
3. In a medium bowl, beat cream cheese, sugar, and vanilla with an electric mixer until light and fluffy. Beat in eggs until well combined. Fold in 1 cup of blueberries. Pour filling into prepared crust.
4. Bake at 350 degrees F (175 degrees C) until set, 40 to 50 minutes. To prevent the crust from over-browning, gently cover pie with foil for the last 25 minutes of baking. Cool completely on a wire rack.
5. In a small bowl, beat jelly until smooth; spread over cheese filling. Arrange 1 cup blueberries on top in a star pattern.

Red, White, and Blueberry Fruit Salad

Ingredients

- 1 pint strawberries, hulled and quartered
- 1 pint blueberries
- 1/2 cup white sugar
- 2 tablespoons lemon juice
- 4 bananas

Directions

1. Mix the strawberries and blueberries together in a bowl, sprinkle with sugar and lemon juice, and toss lightly. Refrigerate until cold, at least 30 minutes. About 30 minutes before serving, cut the bananas into 3/4-inch thick slices, and toss with the berries.
