Hello 2013 Camping Season

Our opening campout of 2013 was held at Clearwater Campground in Ortonville, MI. In attendance were Walt & Linda Ament, Dick & Brenda Dunham, Jerry & Barb Hodges, Ron & Bev Irwin, and Sue Wireman.

Mother nature continued her tradition of wrecking havoc at our earliest campout. It was cold, rainy, cold, windy, cold, snowy, and cold. The sun actually made an appearance on Sunday, what's that saying, "Too little, too late". This dampened the spirits of some had many questioning the viability of April camping in the future. We will talk about this at our next campout.

Friday we visited in campers instead of around a campfire, deciding of course to go out to dinner. We revisited O'Malley's in Ortonville for dinner and had a great time in the warmth of the restaurant. We hated to call it to an end, but a line started forming at the door to get in. The girls gathered at the Irwin camper and ended up talking instead of playing games.....have to wait until Saturday.

Saturday we had our group breakfast in the trailer. We had Brenda's buttermilk pancakes, French toast, eggs, sausage, bacon, scones, milk, juice, and coffee. We still managed to walk our dogs, walk our trash to the bin, and check out the animals in the little petting zoo. Walt & Linda checked out the local antique shops while the rest of the girls played dominoes and the guys watched sports on TV.

Our first pot luck of the season was copious and ambrosial. Jerry and Theresa Szarama joined us for dinner. We enjoyed chicken & rice, KFC, scalloped potatoes/ham, Sue's special green bean dish, corn salad, apple pie, brownies, chocolate cream pie, and a birthday cake. Even though his birthday wasn't until Sunday we all sang, "Happy Birthday" to our president Dick! Then we ate cake!!

I brought up the fact that the State Rally is on the second weekend of June (14, 15, 16) and wondered if anyone would like to camp our regular third weekend. This would be June 21, 22, 23. We had suggestions of Camp Dearborn, Walnut Hills, or Addison Oaks as places to camp. PLEASE E-MAIL, CALL, TEXT, or FACEBOOK ME ASAP WETHER YOU WANT TO CAMP OR NOT AND YOUR VOTE FOR CAMPGROUND. I would like to book a campground in a couple of weeks if we want to do this so please send me your decision and vote. Thanks!

Speaking of the State Rally, please be sure to get your reservation in if you plan on attending. The information is in the schedule section below. Our club is in charge of hospitality this year. This means we need to make and bring sweets and drinks. We will firm up the details at the May campout but start thinking cookies, brownies, etc. This is our club responsibility so everyone needs to pitch in. Even if you don't plan on attending, you need to get your baked goods to someone that is going.

The girls finished their domino game and squeezed in a game of Sequence before calling it a night.

Sunday was sunny but windy and cool. Perfect weather for packing up and going home until next month!!!!!!

Notes

**Don't forget to get in your 2013 camping dues.

**Please note the State Rally is the weekend of the 15-16 which is actually the second full weekend of the month, not the third. Our club is in charge of Hospitality. Please plan on attending to help out. If not attending make arrangements to get your baked goods to someone that is attending.

I spoke to Arnie and got the thumbs up for any of our members wishing to attend the State Rally, Jayco units or not. Hope to see you ALL there!! If it works, I have attached the note sent to us by the host club with additional information for the Rally. If you don't get it, please contact me.

This is our 2012 Camping schedule. I have supplied the address, phone number and website for the campgrounds in addition to our camp site number if you wish to be as close together as possible. Please read all notes as they have special information you may need. Please check out websites for pricing, amenities and site maps. If you have any questions, please call Bev (248) 391-9809.
