Busy Busy June

We had two outings this month. The Jayco Michigan State Rally and our regular campout.

Attending the State Rally: Garth Burgon, Dick & Brenda Dunham, Jerry & Barb Hodges, Ron & Bev Irwin, Bob & Carol Oshnock, and Sue Wireman.

Our State Rally is always a lot of fun catching up with all our Michigan camping buddies. Our club was in charge of hospitality this year. We all made a boatload of cookies before arriving so our weekend responsibility was just to keep the cookie trays as well as the beverages containers full. Hot coffee, iced tea and lemonade keep us all well hydrated and ready for fun.

We were all surprised upon arrival to find an unfamiliar unit parked in our area. Dick and Brenda bought a new unit. A Pinnacle.....what a beauty! Congrats to you guys!

Friday was registration, Hot Dog Supper and Welcome Ceremonies . Dinner was followed by nickel Bingo and an Ice Cream Social.

Saturday started with an Officers Meeting where this year's International Rally and next year's State Rally were discussed. Unfortunately we will not have a club representative at the International Rally which will be held in August in North Carolina.

The 2014 State Rally was scheduled to be hosted by Flight # 76. They only have 3 units as members and 2 of them will be unable to attend the Rally next year. They declined host duties. We offered to switch with them. So our club will be host club in 2014. As those of you who participated in the hosting responsibilities in 2010 know, there is a lot of work to be done to carry off a successful rally. I have prepared a list of things to do before and during the Rally and we will be discussing them at each outing during the year. I have included this list for your perusal. Let me know if you think of anything I have forgotten. Also, start to decide where you can lend a hand. Please make every effort to attend the Rally. Many hands make light work!!!

Saturday activities continued with Games, Craft Sales, and Euchre tournament. Harley and Doreen joined us for the afternoon and dinner, which was a pleasant surprise.

In the evening we gathered for a catered chicken dinner followed by a short program by the “Harmony Hounds” Following the entertaining but skimpy program were the closing ceremonies, Award presentation and Prizes.

Sunday was minus a gospel program but there were muffins and juice before saying our “Good Byes” and heading home.

Our June outing was held at Addison Oaks, Rochester, MI. In attendance were: Walt & Linda Ament, Dick & Brenda Dunham, Daryl & Crystal, Colt & Grant Dunham, Ron & Bev Irwin, Sue Wireman, and our newest members Dave & Peggy Gilmore.....Welcome Gilmores!!! John & Stephanie Junga, potential members, camped with us as well. We are hoping to add them to our membership (wink, wink Jungas!!)

We stayed in an area with no reservations so we headed out as early as possible Friday morning. We all got to camp pretty close considering. It was kind of hot so we just chilled in the shade most of the day. We did have a campfire with the required S'mores and Pudgy pies. Thanks to John Junga we all got to see the international space station pass directly overhead. That was very cool, thanks again John!

Saturday started with our group breakfast of pancakes, bacon, eggs, bacon, fruit, bacon, coffee cake and bacon.

We spent the rest of the day participating in or arm-chair quarder-backing, the chatting, swimming, dog walking, domino playing, bike riding, sports watching, napping.....you know, the normal activities.

Jerry & Theresa Szarama came and had dinner with us. Nice to see them again. This is where I usually list the food but seriously, we out did ourselves this time, due in a large part to Stephanie's baking marathon. Let's suffice to say not only did no one go away hungry, most of us went away uncomfortably full. We did have a discussion about a new name for Brenda's cake.....tee hee, tee hee!! :)

There were some reports of naked, outdoor showering. Um....what happens at the campout, stays at the campout!!! Enough said.

Samantha Irwin and her friend Jason had dinner, went swimming and played domino's with us as well. Any rumors about the length of the game or the wee morning hours it ended have been greatly exaggerated!!!

We hung out together on Sunday until after a group Mustgo lunch, a little help for the Gilmores, and then reluctantly headed for home.

See You all in July!!
