Zender's, Zoos, Zephyrs!!

Our August campout held at Pine Ridge Campground in Frankenmuth. In Attendance were Dick & Brenda Dunham, Daryl & Crystal Dunham/Colt & Grant, Dave & Peggy Gilmore/grandson Kyle, Ron & Bev Irwin, and Sue Wireman. Jerry & Theresa Szarama didn't camp but spent Saturday with us.

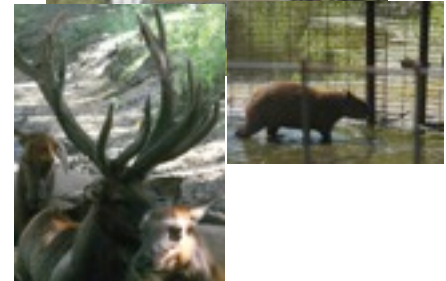

Friday, in anticipation of Zenders, we all cooked in. It sure was great to have some little ones to bring a fresh outlook on just about everything. The weather was beautiful during the day for visiting and the campfire felt great at night.

We started Saturday with our group breakfast. We all enjoyed Brenda's pancakes, sausage, bacon, eggs, blueberry muffins, and hot-out-of-the-oven monkey bread. As usual, no one went away hungry.

A group of us visited the Wilderness Trails Zoo across the street from the campground. We saw some exotic animals as well as the expected ones. The kids had fun feeding swans, ducks, and turtles on the little pond, deer and goats on land. There was a baby camel, baby alpaca, and a calf. We saw porcupine, deer, elk, foxes, bears, owls, and a donkey (That is for you Daryl...lol). There were monkeys, tigers, leopards, capybaras, ostriches, and a huge reptile menagerie. We had a great time even though everyone was tired and hungry. We were glad we opted to drive instead of walk to the zoo at this point.

We had visitors before, during, and after dinner. Ron & Bev's friends Hal & Liz stopped by to visit for a while before dinner. Chrystal's friends Danita & Lisa from Texas joined us for dinner. We had 16 people for an all you can eat chicken dinner at Zender's in Frankenmuth. There were 5 courses from soup to dessert with the yummy Zender's chicken, stuffing, potatoes, and green beans as the featured entree course. We all left sated!!!

Crystal's Dad Cliff and friend Connie joined us after dinner at the campfire. Much later in the evening we got out the S'mores. Ahhhhh!

We hung out as long as we could on Sunday, but with a 12:00 check out it wasn't long enough. All that is left of another great weekend is our memories and this newsletter! Can't wait for next month!!

See You all in Shipshewana !!
