Fort Custer

Our July outing was at Fort Custer in Augusta, MI. In attendance were Mike & Gail Angelini, Daryl & Crystal, Colt & Grant Dunham, Dave & Peggy Gilmore, Ron & Bev Irwin, and Bob & Carol Oshnock.

After a scenic detour through the Fort Custer National Cemetery (damn that GPS), we arrived at Fort Custer Recreation Center. Each campsite was surrounded by trees and bushes giving the illusion of complete privacy. Next time we will pick spots AWAY from the campground bathroom for less traffic, drama, and a little privacy reality!!!

Mike & Gail gave us all a tour of their new Jayco trailer. What a beautiful unit. They are very happy with it! YAY!!!!!!

We had a group dinner of Mustgo from the Irwin Family Reunion. Pulled pork and pulled chicken with 6 different kinds of BBQ sauce. Rolls, beans and rice from Peggy rounded out the meal. Daryl built a fire and we let our full bellies rest. Yes, of course we toasted marshmallows!!

Saturday morning we had our group breakfast. We enjoyed Brenda's homemade buttermilk pancakes, sans Brenda (great substitute job Daryl) We had egg casserole, bacon and.....dun dun da MONKEY BREAD!!!!

After breakfast we took a tour of the *Gilmore Heritage Center. Several two story barns were, purchased, moved, and filled with antiques. There were pedal cars, motor cycles, and several filled with vintage and speciality cars. Definitely a great side trip. *Not the same as our Gilmores!!!

Dick & Brenda joined us for the day (their 5th wheel was hospitalized awaiting slide-out surgery)

The Irwins left for a family wedding while the rest....I guess, did normal Saturday Jypsies activities.

Sunday was relaxed and laid back. Several people left around noon and the Gilmores, Irwins, and Dunham's had Crystal's Hawaiian bun/Ham sandwiches for lunch. Yummmmm, they were good. Way before we were ready, it was time to leave.

SEE YOU AT HAYES STATE PARK!!

*NOTES: I received a letter from Donna Horning regarding the White Cloud Invitational. For our new folks, the White Cloud outing is for all our Michigan camping clubs (others sometimes as well). It is held in White Cloud City Park, White Cloud, MI, the last weekend in September. We have a dish to pass dinner (Donna supplies the meat) on Saturday. There is a hall with a fireplace where we gather all weekend long for meals, games, conversation or whatever. Having a few dollars in nickels and/or quarters is always a good idea.

This year the county has taken over the city park and there are some changes. First of all, the dates are Sept 24th - 28th. In order to avoid some new charges, Donna is going to pay all at once for everyone. The breakdown is as follows. Wed - Sun (4 nights) is $83.00. Thurs - Sun (3 nights) is $62.25. Fri-Sun (2 nights) $41.50. Please send Donna a check for your intended stay by September 12th. Any questions please call Bev or Donna (231) 689-6370. Donna's address is: 1660 Nash Rd. White Cloud, MI 49349
