Hayes State Park

Our August Outing was held at Hayes State Park. In attendance was Dick & Brenda Dunham, Daryl & Crystal Dunham with Colt & Grant, Dave & Peggy Gilmore, Jerry & Barb Hodges, and Ron & Bev Irwin.

It was race weekend at MIS, about 2 miles down the road. We were the only group without NASCAR decorations, attire, and paraphernalia. We really felt out of place. To compensate we decided to go out to dinner. We headed AWAY from MIS and found a little hole-in-the-wall place to eat. The ambience left a lot to be desired, but the food was 5 star. We sure enjoyed the warmth of the campfire that night. Oh yeah, there may have been a few marshmallows toasted as well.

Saturday morning saw us at the picnic tables again with a wonderful breakfast. For a change of pace we had bag omelets. Eggs and all the fixen's, in a ziplock bag, and dropped into boiling water. Definitely a camping delicacy. We added some fried potatoes and monkey bread. Yummmmm

Saturday saw guilting expeditions, beach swimming, a firefly kids craft, chore completions, fire tending, and a little snoozing. We ended the day with a great pot luck, mostly pasta dishes and a couple of desert choices. Then came campfires and shenanigans, captured on film....well digital imaging actually. I never had so much fun in one night, with two kids, and three dollars of pipe cleaners & Elmer's Glue! Campfires and marshmallows ended this night as well. Barb had the greatest rectangle marshmallows.....toasted so much better than the round ones.

The dreaded, end-of-the-weekend Sunday dawned bright and beautiful. We dragged our feet, staying almost to checkout time before calling it quits on another outing, packing up, and pulling out. Only 2 more club campouts.....SIGH!

Ron & Bev Irwin and Sue Wireman attended the Jayco International Rally in Goshen Indiana at the Elkhart Fairgrounds. The week was very busy with Vender booths, seminars, hospitality nights, family movies, games, dinners, breakfasts, crafts, Red Hat and Greasy Hat luncheons, and factory tours. Aside from the torrential rains on Sunday and Monday and the train that went by every 20 minutes, day and night, with whistles a-blowing, we had a great time. We visited with old friends and made new ones. I even have a fun couple from Ohio that wants to camp with us sometime. May even join our club. Might have to change our name to the International Jayco Jypsies!!!! There were a dozen or more First Timers at this event. Everyone should think of attending next year's rally in Amana Colonies, Iowa. I understand there isn't a train (or much else for the matter) for miles!!!!

Our Michigan offerings: fudge (Mackinac), rice crispies treats (Kellogs), corn bread (Jiffy) yep, that is wine from the Illinois group!!!!

I just liked their club name!!!

I will be visiting Wisconsin soon. Not for the cheese, although it was wonderful, but for the beer. Discovered a beer I really like. Leinenkugel's Red Lager!!!!

SEE YOU AT Lake Huron Campground!!

*NOTES: Don't forget the White Cloud Outing Sept 24 - 28. We have a dish to pass dinner (Donna supplies the meat) on Saturday. There is a hall with a fireplace where we gather all weekend long for meals, games, conversation or whatever. Having a few dollars in nickels and/or quarters is always a good idea. A fun time always.

Wed - Sun (4 nights) is $83.00.

Thurs - Sun (3 nights) is $62.25.

Fri-Sun (2 nights) $41.50.

Please send Donna a check for your intended stay by September 12th. Any questions please call Bev or Donna (231) 689-6370. Donna's address is: 1660 Nash Rd. White Cloud, MI 49349
